Gina's Pizza & Pastaria received the top tribute as this year's DARTS business award honoree for a local business that appreciates student patronage.

DARTS (Dignity, Appreciation, Respect for Treating Students), which is in its second year of inception, is a High School committee comprised of two student representatives from each class, Dr. Theresa Daem, Superintendent, Darrin J. During a school-wide DARTS sponsored election, Gina's Pizza & Pastaria won the prestigious award this April. The restaurant will be recognized at the May 24th Board of Education meeting and at a LBHS pep assembly on June 2, 2005.

The five businesses receiving the most votes by the student body were Gina's Pizza & Pastaria, San Shi Go, Golden Spoon Frozen Yogurt, Hobie Sports, and Café Zinc.

In January, Wahoo's Fish Taco's was selected as the winning business. Last year's top award went to Sammy's Burgers and Subs.
